

TECHNICAL REVIEW 2005-2009 NAVU

General technical policy of the NAVU

Mission

Create the proper fundamental conditions for the development of football in the Netherlands Antilles and enhance participation in football from the play and entertainment perspective no matter what age, gender or economic income. Provide good sport infrastructures for proper development of youth football including sport programs, professional personnel, adequate materials and financial support.

Objectives

The main objectives of the NAVU for the upcoming period will be:

- Become a transparent football organization with transparency in the policies and procedures of the federation applying the principles of good governance
- Upgrade the components of a sound football organization in all its dimensions such as organizational structure, procedures, systems, programs and leadership
- Improve the communication between the NAVU board, staff and personnel and its external environment through modern technology approaches and communication channels
- Sustainable development of the youth policy and talent development program for girls and boys in schools and clubs in Bonaire and Curacao
- Enhance accessibility for volunteers to join the sport of football by offering them training to develop their skills as coaches and leaders
- Commercialize the product football by good marketing and public relations activities
- Professional approach in the system and methods of training to enhance the performance of the national team on the international level and to create a professional corporate culture.

Technical policy and spear points over the past 5 years

Technical policy over the year 2005

- Introduction of soccer as part of the school curriculum Bonaire and Curacao
- Introduction of women soccer in primary schools Bonaire and Curacao
- Education coaching program from abroad: Brazil, Netherlands and Concacaf level

Technical policy over the year 2006

- Technical sustain to soccer organization
- Introduction of talent programs and technical training in the region
- Introducing soccer programs from KNVB development programs Bonaire and Curacao

Technical policy over the year 2007

- Recruiting talented players from abroad to reinforce national teams
- Innovation in training and coaching from abroad

Technical policy over the year 2008

- Enhancing of career opportunities for Youth
- Enhancing of talent practices with the cooperation with organizations from abroad
- World cup qualifying cycles with professional guiding and professional infrastructure

Technical policy over the year 2009

- Cooperation with NEC and other federations
- Optimizing the cooperation with other cooperations and institutions

1. Education programs and courses for leaders, coaches and volunteers

Introduction:

To upgrade the level of leadership and coaching through quality education and upgrading

Technical policy and strategies of the education program was projected on the following activities:

To introduce the basics skill, fundamentals and innovation in the education programs for better leading and coaching of the youth

Performance indicators and milestones were:

Cooperation with institutions and soccer association in the region and with KNVB from Netherlands

Almost 40 coaches Bonaire and Curacao has passed an upgrading trajectory of technical education

Almost 20 referees has passed the process of education and training of refereeing

Almost 5 staff en board members has passed mgt workshops in different disciplines

National and international education programs from 2005- 2009

KNVB coaching programs

Brazil soccer federation and Olympic aid program

Concacaf education program

Coaches

Participation of different coaches at course from abroad Netherlands, Brazil and Trinidad

Referee personnel

Participation referee conductors at courses in Trinidad and Tobago

Delivery of course from KNVB local

Administration

Participation of board member to course from abroad

Marketing, financial and special event management

Year 2005

Participation 1 coaches in Cuba (Brigitha)
Course conductor for KNVB in Cuba (Siliee)
Participation one coach at course in Guatemala (Mercelino)
Participation one coach at course in Ecuador (Caldera)
Participation of 6 region coaches at internship in the Netherlands (Nivilac, Monte, Cicilia, Emerenciana, Finies, Beach,
Participation 2 person administration personnel (Coffee, Donker)
Participation one coach at course in Trinidad (Berenos)

Year 2006

Participation three coaches at course in Brazil (Albertoe, Marcelli, Berenos)
Participation two ladies to congress women soccer in the Caribbean
Participation of one coach to courses in Trinidad (Caldera)

Year 2007

Participation 2 person administration personnel (Coffee, Donker)
Participation one coach at course in Trinidad (Trouwloon)
Participation one referee at course in Trinidad (Davelaar)
Participation of board members to course abroad (Maria, Mathilda and Isenia)

Year 2008

Participation one coach at course physical in Trinidad (Trouwloon)
Participation one coach at course keeper straining in Trinidad (Nivilac)
Participation one coach at course women soccer in Trinidad (Koster)
Courses form local referees (Chance and Davelaar)

Year 2009

Training youth leadership (conductor Siliee)
Course for youth referees (Chance and Davelaar)
Technical support from NEC
Social attitude and skills for youth leadership
Training physical training to youngster NAOC

2. International national team qualifications and tournaments for qualified players

Introduction:

To compete in the region and international for nation exposure and nation building

Technical policy and strategies of the youth developments program was projected on the following activities:

Creating the possibilities for international development and competing on international level, developing the art of soccer skill and competencies

Performance indicators and milestones were:

Youth national teams and participation at the CFU and CONCAF tournaments

Category U-13

Category U-15

Category U-17

Category U-20/21

Category U-23

Senior participation

Gender women participation

Year 2005

Year 2006

Neth ANT U-21 championship no1 (Virgin island's Lucia) qualification CAC Cartegena

Neth ANT women no 2 (Suriname, Aruba) Qualification women golden cup Aruba

Neth ANT U-21 two lost vs Colombia and Panama CAC Cartegena

Neth ANT U-20 no1 world qualification (BR Guyana, Suriname, Aruba)

Neth ANT U-20 one gain (Bermuda) 2 lost (Jamaica and Haiti)

Neth ANT U-16 lost first round CFU tournament Trinidad and Tobago

Neth ANT senior Digicel Cup 3 lost (BR Guyana, Suriname, Grenada)

Interexpo tournament

Year 2007

U-13 Championship tournament in Aruba no 1

Neth ANT U-17 kingdom game no 2 the Hage

Neth ANT U-23 no 2 Olympic qualification (BR Guyana, Suriname, Aruba)

Neth ANT U-20 sec round world one gain (Bermuda) 2 lost (Jamaica and Haiti)

Neth ANT U-16 lost first round CFU tournament Trinidad and Tobago

Interexpo tournament

Year 2008

U-13 Championship tournament in Aruba no 1

Neth ANT World qualification senior participation first round (Honduras) 2 gain

Neth ANT World qualification senior participation second round (Haiti one draw ,one lost)

Neth ANT Digicel Caribbean Cup no 1 (Virgin Islands and Grenada)

Neth ANT Digicel Second round CUBA (Cuba, Barbados and Suriname) all lost

Year 2009

U-13 Championship tournament in Aruba no 2

U-17 Kingdom game Aruba no 2

3. Technical stimulation and development programs for the youth man and women

Introduction

Youth Development programs was aimed to develop the fundamentals, skills and the technical competencies of the of the target group age 8-18 year

Technical policy and strategies of the youth developments program was projected on the following activities

- Develop the game at the primary school level by ensuring age appropriate training programs
- Technical assistance to primary schools
- Technical assistance to soccer organizations
- Technical assistance in the neighborhoods projects
- Technical assistance to specific target group

Performance indicators and milestones were:

Project school development program 4 vs. 4 girls and boys

- school challenge tournaments
- school beach soccer tournaments
- school 4 vs. 4 tournaments
- school indoor tournaments

Year 2005

- Project soccer development and stimulation in the primary schools with technical assistance from cios students and local sport leaders
- 4 vs. 4 tournaments organize for primary and secondary schools
- Technical support Ruud Koopmans in the neighborhoods and the organizations
- Project vacation challenge tournaments for youth

Year 2006

- Girl's soccer support on the primary schools
- Girls 4 vs. 4 tournaments on primary and secondary level
- 4 vs. 4 tournaments organize for primary and secondary schools
- Technical support Ruud Koopmans in the neighborhoods and the organizations
Technical support to soccer organizations in the neighborhoods
- Development excellence training in four regions

Year 2007

- Girl's soccer support on the primary schools
- Girls 4 vs. 4 tournaments on primary and secondary level
- Technical support to soccer organizations in the neighborhoods
- Development excellence training in four regions
- Girl's soccer support on the primary schools

- Girls 4 vs. 4 tournaments on primary and secondary level
- Technical support to soccer organizations in the neighborhoods
- Development excellence training in four regions

Year 2008

- Girls 4 vs. 4 tournaments on primary and secondary level
- Technical support to soccer organizations in the neighborhoods
- Development excellence training in four regions
- Girl's soccer support on the primary schools and secondary school
- Girls 4 vs. 4 tournaments on primary and secondary level
- Technical support to soccer organizations in the neighborhoods
- Development excellence training in four regions

Year 2009

- Girls 4 vs. 4 tournaments on primary and secondary level
- Technical support to soccer organizations in the neighborhoods
- Development excellence training in eight regions
- Girl's soccer support on the primary schools and the clubs
- Girls 4 vs. 4 tournaments
- Development excellence training in four regions according to project NEC

4. Talent development programs for elite players and qualified players

Introduction:

- To accomplish quality performance under the youth

Technical policy and strategies of the youth developments program was projected on the following activities:

- Enhancing of career opportunities through coaching program for talented players

Performance indicators and milestones were:

- Program for talent development in the neighborhood and regions
- Involvement of six regions with 90 players participating in this program
- Leading process with 10 coaches involvement in the complete program
- The category U-13 and U-15 involvement of almost 140 players

Year 2005

- Information's sessions of the soccer organization involve in the program
- Recruiting of elite players by soccer elite days and by scouting during the competitions
- Organizing of central small 4 a side competitions for the elite players in SDK
- Organizing of special practice situation and scenarios for the players at the NAVU trainings Centrum
- Practical session in the region with the different age categories
- Train the trainers for the coaches working in the regions
- Participations of the elite teams U-13 and the U-15 to the international tournaments in Aruba ,Venezuela en Trinidad

Year 2006

- Monthly meetings with the regions coaches
- Recruiting of elite players by soccer elite days and by scouting during the competitions
- Organizing of central small 4 a side competitions for the elite players in SDK
- Organizing of special practice situation and scenarios for the players at the NAVU trainings Centrum
- Practical session in the region with the different age categories
- Train the trainers for the coaches working in the regions
- Participations of the elite teams U-13 and the U-15 to the international tournaments in Aruba and Trinidad

Year 2007

- Recruiting of elite players by soccer elite days and by scouting during the competitions
- Organizing of central small 4 a side competitions for the elite players in SDK
- Organizing of special practice situation and scenarios for the players at the NAVU trainings Centrum
- Practical session in the region with the different age categories
- Train the trainers for the coaches working in the regions
- Participations of the elite teams U-13 and the U-15 to the international tournaments in Aruba and Trinidad

Year 2008

- Recruiting of elite players by soccer elite days and by scouting during the competitions
- Organizing of central small 4 a side competitions for the elite players in SDK
- Practical session in the region with the different age categories
- Train the trainers for the coaches working in the regions
- Participations of the elite teams U-13 and the U-15 to the international tournaments in Aruba and Trinidad

Year 2009

- Recruiting of elite players by soccer elite days and by scouting during the competitions
- Organizing of special practice situation and scenarios for the players at the NAVU trainings Centrum
- Practical session in eight region with the different age categories according to Collaboration with NEC
- Train the trainers for the coaches working in the regions and the NEC project
- Participations of the elite teams U-13 and the U-15 to the international tournaments in Aruba and Trinidad